

Wish Lists

Andrew Gould

My perfect Christmas: Waking up with my wife and two kids (who wake up early!) and opening presents. I like to chill out, get together with family and have a relaxing but fun day. I would love snow. It's all about the kids but I'm a big one myself!

Christmas Wish List: A new designer watch and an Audi A5.

Gift horse: Whoever the best 4 or 5 year old is in the world at this time so I can train it and bring it on!

Christmas lunch invite: Spencer Wilton, because he is my best mate, and, from the past, Herbert Rehbein. It would be fascinating to compare notes on training, and how the sport has changed over the years.
