

symptoms and why it is crucial to call your vet at the first signs of discomfort. Pegasus Equine is developing a number of videos to help horse owners understand more about common equine conditions, what to look out for and what action to take. The video series and other common condition videos covering veterinary equipment damage and services are now available on www.pegasusequine.co.uk.

ANDREW WINS HIS FIRST INTERNATIONAL KUR!

Absolute Horse magazine columnist, Andrew Gould had his first international win in Compiègne CDI 3* recently on Natasha Mitchell's grey gelding Mitchell's Santorini Hit.

On the first day Andrew was fifth in the Prix St George. Andrew then decided to compete in the Intermediaire I Kur on the second day with his enjoyable freestyle routine made up of Bryan Adams' Run to You for the trot work and Rob Dougan's Will You Follow Me? for the walk and canter. They were very successful with a score of 70.62% to win the class.

Baileys Horse Feeds sponsored rider Andrew explained: "This horse is getting better and better with every show, he has so much quality. I am hoping to compete him at Hartpury CDI 3* and Hickstead CDI 3* as he is on fire at the moment!"